

Catholic Church announces site and theme for Pope's visit to Portugal

www.bentoxviportugal.pt | “With you, we walk in hope” On February 9, in Fatima, at the conclusion of another meeting of the Permanent Council of the Bishops Conference of Portugal (CEP), the Internet page relative to the visit of His Holiness Benedict XVI to Portugal in May 2010 was officially made public. The purpose of the site www.bentoxviportugal.pt is to provide, in the words of the CEP’s spokesman, “information on the program of the Pope’s visit, as well as news regarding preparations, photos and the possibility of interaction”. The general theme for the visit was also decided: “With you, we walk in hope”, with the subtitle “Christianity, wisdom and mission”.
