Winter schedule comes into effect on November 1st

Winter schedule comes into effect on November 1st

Mass at 11:00 am is now celebrated in the Basilica of Most Holy trinity

From November 1st, the winter schedule comes into effect in the program of the celebration of the Shrine of Fatima.

The main changes are related to the foreign language masses. The official Italian mass at 08:00 am and the official English mass at 03:30 pm are no longer part of the daily program of the Shrine.

The mass at 11:00 am, on Sundays, celebrated during Summer schedule in the Prayer Area, will be now celebrated in the Basilica of Most Holy Trinity.

The different schedules of the celebrations are available on the official web page of the Shrine of Fatima (www.fatima.pt).

The celebrations in the Chapel of the Apparitions are the following:

From November to Easter

10:00 am – ROSARY, on Sunday and religious holydays.

12:00 pm – ROSARY, from Monday to Saturday.

12:30 pm – MASS.

02:00 pm – HOUR OF REPARATION to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, on Saturday and Sunday (except on Sundays during Lent time).

04:00 pm – ROSARY. on Sunday and religious holydays.

06:30 pm – ROSARY.

07:15 pm – MASS, in Spanish, on Saturday.

09:30 pm – ROSARY, followed by candlelight procession in the Prayer Area (the candlelight procession takes place every day until the beginning of Advent; from Advent to Easter, it takes place on Saturdays and 12th; on Thursdays, until the beginning of Advent, it is followed by the Eucharistic procession).
