Eucharistic Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration

The Eucharistic Adoration can be done individually every day and permanently in the Chapel of the Most Holy Sacrament.

Every Thursday, at 6:30 pm, mass is celebrated in that chapel, evoking the day of the instauration of the sacrament of the Eucharist, source and centre of all Christian life, and highlighting the intimate and indissoluble union between its celebration and its adoration. The Mass is followed by a moment of communal adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Every Friday, at 5:30 pm, the Eucharist Adoration is communally done.

During the International Anniversary Pilgrimages, from May to October, the Chapel of the Holy Sacrament is temporarily closed in the night of the 12th to the 13th. By doing so, the Shrine wills to value the night vigil of the International Pilgrimage, by avoiding the dispersion of the pilgrims.

Therefore, during the International Anniversary Pilgrimages, the Chapel of the Holy Sacrament is closed from 9:30 pm of the 12th (when the vigil begins, with the recitation of the Rosary, in the Chapel of the Apparitions) and is reopened at 7:00 am of the 13th
