Visit of the Pilgrim Virgin is “moment of grace” for the Church in Portugal

One year ago, on the 13th of May 2015, the Pilgrim Image of Our Lady of Fatima started a pilgrimage throughout the Portuguese dioceses, one of the most significant initiatives of the Centennial of the Apparitions, which now comes to its end. Many countries, dioceses and parish communities, all over the world, organize visits of the Pilgrim Image of Our Lady of Fatima. This had the particularity of being assumed by the Portuguese Episcopal Conference, that published a Pastoral Note on the initiative, as a means of implication on the celebration of the Centennial of the Apparitions.

The news and testimonies that have been arriving from the visited dioceses confirm that this great pilgrimage was a strong experience of faith and Marian devotion, and a special opportunity to diffuse and deepen the message of Fatima. The festive environment always accompanied the Image, demonstrating the joy and the enthusiasm of Christians with such a distinguished visit.

This jubilant pilgrimage shows us that Our Lady continues having an unequalled capacity of attraction among Christians. The faithful are fully aware that, in the Image, they venerate Our Lady, who is represented in it. The various manifestations of veneration toward the Image reveal the conscience that, through this sensible mediation, Our Lady – who is already in the glory, next to God, but continues accompanying her children who pilgrim on earth – somehow becomes present; they are a propitious occasion to listen and welcome the message of Fatima; they become a challenge to imitate her attitude and itinerary of faith.

The Portuguese contemplative religious communities, spiritually united to this pilgrimage throughout the Portuguese dioceses, were a support with their prayer. In fact, from May 2014 to February 2015, these same communities welcomed such a distinguished visit and took on the commitment to pray for the good fruits of the pilgrimage of the Image to the dioceses, which now comes to an end.

This was a true moment of grace for the Church in Portugal.

Apparitions of the Angel evoked in the Shrine of Fatima

The Shrine of Fatima evoked the Apparitions of the Angel to the Little Shepherds in 1916, on the 21st of March, in the year of the celebration of the centennial of this event.

This moment of evocation began in the Chapel of the Apparitions, followed by a procession heading to the Loca do Cabeço and to the Well of Arneiro, the two places where the Angel of Peace appeared.

The most reverend António Marto, bishop of the diocese of Leiria-Fatima, greeted those who were present, mentioning particularly the youth who participated in this moment of celebration.

«The centennial of the Apparitions of the Angel coincides with the extraordinary jubilee of mercy. This Angel can be the Angel of Mercy, for he talked of mercy to the Little Shepherds», said the prelate.

With the prayer of the rosary, the procession headed to Aljustrel. During the prayer the refugees, the persecuted and those oppressed were not forgotten.

During the evocation of the first apparition, it was emphasized that the message left by the Angel to the Little Shepherds was a message of peace. One of the moments of greater emotion was the sharing of the gesture of peace by all those present.

In the Well of Arneiro, the place where the Angel appeared for the second time in the summer of 1916, the moment in which he talked of Mercy to the Little Shepherds was reminded.

«What are you doing? Pray, pray very much. The most holy Hearts of Jesus and Mary have designs of mercy on you. Offer prayers and sacrifices constantly to the Most High», remembers Sister Lúcia in her Memoirs.

In Loca de Cabeço, the place of the third apparition, the pilgrims were invited to the same attitude of prayer of the seers of Fatima and prayed once again together the prayers that were taught there by the Angel.

In this moment of celebration of the centennial of the Apparitions of the Angel, various groups of pilgrims were present, including many youths. The pilgrimage toward the Valinhos was always accompanied by the Rector of the Shrine of Fatima.

The Shrine of Fatima receives in 2017 the general meeting of the Association of Shrine Rectors

Organizers of the general meeting of ARS visited Fatima

The Shrine of Fatima will receive the congress and general meeting of the (French) Association of Shrine Rectors in January 2017.

«This congress will bring together the Rectors of the Shrines, but there will be something more to it, as it will allow for the meeting of the members of Marian associations who develop Marian devotion and prayer in their different places», said to Fatima Light and Peace Fr. Vincent Gallois, the president of the Association of Shrine Rectors, who came to Fatima with Paul Berrou, the rector of the Shrine of Sainte-Anne de La Palud, to prepare that meeting of 2017, precisely in the beginning of the commemorative year of the Centennial of the Apparitions of Our Lady in Cova da Iria.

This meeting, entitled «In the heart of her time, Mary and the Church, sign of hope», taken from the verse of the Apocalypse: "A great sign appeared in heaven, a woman", will bring together around one hundred participants, representing various Marian Shrines.

«Our goal is to reflect and pray about this theme. In our association, besides the congress, we develop a spiritual path. We come to the Shrine to know it and experience its own path», added Fr. Vicent Gallois.

«For us it is particularly significant to be able to talk about and show Fatima, taking the participants to make an experience of a pilgrim who comes here», said the rector of the Shrine, Fr. Carlos Cabecinhas.

On the other hand, «it is an opportunity to receive those who are responsible for the shrines, who often are also organizers of pilgrimages to Fatima», observes the responsible for the Shrine of Cova da Iria.

The choice of the Shrine of Fatima was confirmed in the meeting of the Association of the French Shrines in January, in Le Puy-en-Velay.

The Association of Shrine Rectors is a french association that integrates «all French Catholic Shrines» and «some» from Belgium, Switzerland, Portugal and Lebanon.

The meeting in Le Puy-en-Velay, where there is a Marian Shrine, was a moment of reflection on the «phenomenon of pilgrimage and its religious and anthropologic values»

Shrine of Fatima offers a statue to archbishop of Aracaju

The Bishop of Leiria-Fatima has offered a statue of Our Lady of Fatima to the Archdiocese of Aracaju, in the Brazilian state of Sergipe.

The meeting with Mgr. António Marto and the Archbishop of Aracaju, Mgr. José Lessa, was held in Fatima at the House of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, with the presence of the rector of the Shrine and the parish priest of Our Lady of Fatima of Aracaju, two relics of Blessed Francisco and Jacinta were offered on behalf the Postulation.

«We hope that this statue carries the Message of Fatima which is the message of a mother who visits her children in the most painful moments of their lives and conveys to them the face of Jesus and his mercy,» said Mgr. Antonio Marto in a few words of welcome.

The Archdiocese of Aracaju was created on January 3, 1910, the Bull Divine disponente clementia of Pope Pius X, following the dismemberment of the Archdiocese of São Salvador da Bahia.

Divided into four vicariates, which administer 89 parishes, mostly dedicated to Our Lady of Fatima, this archdiocese expresses "a great devotion to Our Lady of Fatima."

«Last year, when the Pilgrim Statue was in Brazil, we had the chance to receive her and it was a great feast that involved even the administrative, political and judicial local entities « said the Archbishop underlining that "her presence helped to renew hearts, to restore families in quarrel and promoted the reconciliation «, stressed Mgr. José Lessa who is the Archbishop of Aracaju since August 1998.

The rector of the Shrine, Fr. Carlos Cabecinhas, said it is "a pleasure" to receive Brazilian pilgrims, and stressed the "unity in this faith and devotion to Our Lady of Fatima." Additionally, he added "Brazil is, at this time, the country that has more devotees of Our Lady of Fatima."

The parish community of Our Lady of Fatima of Aracaju has scheduled a pilgrimage to Cova da Iria Shrine this year in November, and also to France and Italy.

During the meeting, the Bishop of Leiria-Fatima also made an appeal to the Diocesan of Aracaju to pray "for the canonization of the shepherds".

Fiji Islands hosted congress on the Message of Fatima

Fiji Islands received first Congress on the Message of Fatima

The World Apostolate of Fatima hosted its first congress on the message of Fatima for the Oceania region, in the archdiocese of Suva, in Fiji Islands, from the 26th to 29th November 2015. The four days program revolved around the theme: “The New Evangelization of Oceania and the urgency of living and promoting the Message of Fatima”. The event brought together hundreds of people devoted to Our Lady, from Fiji Islands and from some neighbouring countries such as Australia, Samoa, Solomon and American Samoa islands and others representatives from more distant places, such as the Philippines, USA, Portugal and Puerto Rico.

Congress gathered hundreds of persons from different countries

The opening and closure of this congress were marked by a beautiful procession of the Statue of Our Lady of Fatima, carried by young people dressed in traditional customs of the country. The procession went through the main streets of the capital city and was followed by a multitude who, in prayer and singing to the Virgin Mary, walked towards the cathedral where Mass was celebrated.

Several speakers, including the Archbishop of Suva, Mons. Peter Chong and the international president of the World Apostolate of Fatima, Prof. Américo Ortiz, have shared their reflections during the congress. Both have emphasized the need to establish a correct Marian devotion in the Pacific region so that it may truly be at the service of evangelization.

The presence and the testimony of Ana Reis and Nuno Prazeres, from the Secretariat in Fatima, and the greeting messages sent by the Bishop of Leiria-Fatima, the Rector of the Shrine of Fatima, among others, have contributed to shorten the distances between Fiji Islands and Fatima. At the same time, it has allowed the participants to know better the atmosphere of faith and prayer that Fatima offers.

Among the various conclusions drawn from the works of the congress, it can be highlighted the need for reading and interpreting the message of Fatima always taking into account the particular context of a region. In the case of Oceania, it means to bring the message of Fatima to people living in isolated and scattered islands in the Pacific, often subject to poverty, violence and destruction of their ancestral values. Our Lady’s calls for prayer, reparation and peace are therefore of extreme relevance in this context.

The meeting has also served to mobilize everyone for the celebrations of the Centennial of the Apparitions of Fatima, encouraging them to organize activities in their own countries to mark this ephemerid.

The World Apostolate of Fatima is an international association of the Church whose mission is to live and spread the Message of Our Lady of Fatima throughout the world. For further information: www.worldfatima.com

International Meeting of Fatima gathered 1500 young people

Young people of Opus Dei in the annual youth meeting during Holy Week

The International Meeting of Fatima – MIF – is a youth meeting that takes place during the Holy Week and carries out a variety of sporting and cultural activities in Fatima.

This meeting is attended by young people aged between 14-16 from 65 youth associations, mainly from Spain and Portugal but also from another European and African countries. This year around 1500 young people gathered, guided by tutors.

During this week, the group engaged in multiple activities such as: football, futsal, basketball, cinema, and quiz games on Europe and Literature. These youngsters visited elderly care homes and the John Paul II Support Centre for the disabled to provide them entertainment and to share the experience of human suffering.

The main purpose of the MIF is to offer a structure that allows young people to live the Holy Week with enthusiasm, in close proximity to Our Lady of Fatima and to take part in religious celebrations, with particular emphasis on the Easter Triduum celebrations, the Mass of the Lord's Supper, Lord's Passion, and Easter Vigil. Besides these activities, there is also time for relaxation and amusement, so much needed in young people of these ages, when on vacations.

They also visited all the places related to the apparitions of Our Lady and the Angel of Portugal. Many of these young men, and mainly the coordinators have a deep knowledge of all the events that happened in Cova da Iria.

To live the Holy Week so close to Our Lady and to have the privilege of many moments of prayer in the Chapel of Apparitions is definitely an unforgettable conversion experience for these youngsters.

Pilgrims of the Apostolado de la Oración de Toledo made the 25th pilgrimage to Fatima

About a thousand pilgrims of the Apostolado de la Oración de Toledo – more than 500 youth, fifty priests and about one hundred families, mostly young – participated in the 25th pilgrimage to the Shrine of Fatima.

Being a jubilee pilgrimage, the group offered an ostensorium that was used during a vigil organized on Sunday night, in the Chapel of the Apparitions.

Composed by different elements, who come every year to the Shrine of Cova da Iria on the Carnival season, the group is headed by Fr. Francisco Martin Carretero, who has always been connected to this initiative.

«It was here that many of us awakened to faith», said the priest who comes since the beginning, even before entering to the seminary, «like others, who through this visit discovered their vocation».

The pilgrimage to Fatima began 25 years ago, in the small city of Talavera de la Reina, in the diocese of Toledo. In the beginnings, three buses were enough; «today they are more than 100», refers the priest saying that nothing stops this desire to come to Fatima, «not even the rain that we always get at the entrance».

«We converted ourselves into a national pilgrimage, from all the autonomous Spanish communities», he says, highlighting that everyone – «young and less young» - wants «to have this encounter with the tender look of the mother».

«That is the great miracle of Fatima: people who come with little faith; who come with friends and arrive here and then want to come back because of Our Lady», he confirms, highlighting that this place is «appropriate for discernment».

But this, unlike others, «is not any kind of pilgrimage» and, therefore, preparation «is fundamental».

«We did not come only for the walking; the spiritual experience is individual but it is also lived in group and therefore we begin preparation very early even because every year we feel that more people come and people who had never done this kind of spiritual “walk”», he adds.

«We generally begin in November with letters directed to parishes, to monasteries and convents, asking them to pray for the success of the pilgrimage. Thereafter, we make videos and news on the pilgrimage so that people can know well what we are going to do», he reminds.

Spanish group offered a ostensorium to the Shrine of Fatima

«Many people join and that’s why the pilgrimage increases the number each time and, mainly, a significant number of youth who live the Marian spirituality in an intense way. When they reach the Chapel of the Apparitions, there is something that touches them, that’s what they tell us», he still refers.

After arriving in Fatima, the days are spent in activities oriented to the Message of Fatima: prayer vigils, Eucharistic celebration, reflection and sharing; «it is all programmed in detail and it is very intense», refers Fr. Francisco Carretero.

«As this year we are celebrating the centennial of the Apparitions of the Angel, this pilgrimage earned a new sense for us», he says; «we are invited to reinforce this fundamental attitude of repentance and humbleness», to be «available for whatever God has reserved for each one of us».

He concludes that «we have to do what Our Lady taught the little shepherds and we came here to say yes to that confidence, which shows itself not by touching or kissing a stone, an image, but by allowing us to be touched by the Immaculate Heart of Our Lady and doing as she did».

VI Pilgrimage of the Devotees of Our Lady of Fatima to the Shrine of Fatima

The diocese of Getafe, Spain, carried out the annual pilgrimage to the Shrine of Fatima from the 3rd to 6th March.

This year, the group consisted of 130 pilgrims and many of them were already frequent participants of this pilgrimage. Three priests and one religious sister also attended the pilgrimage.

«We started our pilgrimage with great joy and enthusiasm for the opportunity to see once again our beloved mother, Our Lady of Fatima,» said António Bustos, member of the group.

Many religious ceremonies took place during the pilgrimage, such as the prayer of the Holy Rosary, as Our Lady requested, the daily celebration of Holy Mass in the Chapel of Apparitions, one hour of adoration and the Stations of the Cross. The priests who went on the pilgrimage confessed the pilgrims along the way.

On Saturday afternoon, after the Hour of Adoration, the group walked through the Holy Door of Mercy of the Shrine of Fatima, to receive the Jubilee of the Holy Year of Mercy.

By the end of the pilgrimage, the Spanish pilgrim mentioned that everyone «was full of love of the Holy Virgin and that they were blessed by a great spiritual grace. Everyone said that they would be happy to come back to Fatima next year, God willing, and with an even stronger reason, since we celebrate the Centennial of the Apparitions of Fatima.

Relics of the Little Shepherds in Rome

The Movement of the Message of Fatima in Italy promoted the celebration of the day of the Little Shepherds, on the 20th of February, with a triduum of prayer and catechises in the Basilica of Sant'Antonio al Laterano, in Rome.

In the Holy Year of Mercy, the Centennial of the Apparitions of the Angel to the Little Shepherds of Fatima is also celebrated. For a greater experience of this occasion, the Basilica of Sant'Antonio al Laterano offered to the faithful a celebrative triduum with a vast program.

On the 18th of February, the images of Our Lady of Fatima and of Blessed Francisco and Jacinta Marto were received, accompanied by their relics. In this same day, there was a catechesis on Francisco Marto, in which the life and teachings of the young seer – who, albeit his short life, dedicated himself to adoration – was explored. During the evening Mass, all those who wished had opportunity to kiss the relics of the Little Shepherds.

A catechesis on Jacinta, another

On the 20th, the liturgical feast of the Little Shepherds, the catechesis offered to the faithful was entitled: “Called to Holiness”. The evening Mass was presided by bishop Lorenzo Leuzzi, auxiliary bishop of Rome. At the end of the celebration, a prayer was addressed to the Blessed, followed by the farewell and the departure of the relics.

Our Lady is “the example of faith” able to transform our lives

April pilgrimage with the presence of five groups of pilgrims

The Rector of the Shrine of Fatima, Fr. Carlos Cabecinhas said in his homily at the mass of the monthly pilgrimage of April at the Shrine, celebrated in the Basilica of the Most Holy Trinity, that “only faith can open our eyes to this new reality, able to transform our lives”, which is the experience of Risen Christ.

And Our Lady “is an example of this faith and of the acceptance of the living Jesus Christ” because She “conceived the Son believing” and “by believing, waited for resurrection” he continued. In that sense, our eyes perceive Her as the “example of faith in the resurrection of Christ,” said the Rector.

After welcoming the pilgrims who were present, in different languages, the Rector of the Shrine of Fatima, based on the Gospel, which, in this Easter season, focuses on the resurrection of Jesus, underlined the importance of the “encounter with the Risen Christ” by referring that it is this experience “that makes us Christians. And Mary is also here a model for us”. “Today, we can’t see Jesus as those who lived with Him during his life in Palestine did. The presence of the Risen Lord is invisible to the eye, but faith perceives the signs of his presence” said the Rector identifying the different ways in which He can be present: in the word, in the Eucharist and in what happens around us. And he issued a challenge: “those who find the Risen Christ cannot but announce Him.”

The Rector of the Shrine also highlighted that this “announcement turns Fatima into a worldwide spread ecclesial event”.

Fr. Carlos Cabecinhas ended by asking Our Lady to “help us to experience the expansive joy that comes from the presence of the living Christ in our lives, to become announcers, like the Shepherds”.

Five groups were announced: one from Portugal, one from Brazil, two groups from France, and one group from Czech Republic.

Shrine of Fatima laments the death of Bishop Rubén Héctor di Monte

«A great apostle of Fatima whose death we lament» is gone, said the Rector of the Shrine of Fatima to the Press Room of the Shrine of Fatima

this Tuesday morning, April 19, a few hours after the death of Bishop Rubén Héctor di Monte, 84 years old, in his native country, Argentina.

Bishop Rubén Héctor di Monte was born on the 12th of April 1932 in Luján, Argentina. Ordained priest on the 5th of December 1954, he was elected titular bishop of Giomnio and auxiliary of Avellaneda on the 13th of June 1980 by John Paul II. On the 26th of April 2000, he became archbishop of Mercedes-Luján. He renounced his post due to his age on the 27th of December 2007.

Bishop Rubén Héctor di Monte, archbishop of Mercedes-Luján, was in Fatima for the last time in May 2014, on the occasion of one more pilgrimage to this Shrine, which was so dear to him.

With Sister Alba Maria Martinez, he founded the Missionary Family of Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima in 1986.

“We want to expand our devotion of Our Lady of Fatima and we seek to be very faithful to her Message. We have a “Fatimobile” which goes across the country – it is already the second one, for we have already covered thousands of kilometres – distributing a lot of informative material: posters, calendars, flyers, pins, etc. We never charged anything for the materials; it's all offered”, referred Monsignor Rubén in the interview that he gave in 2004 to the Press Room of the Shrine of Fatima.

He was the responsible for the organization of four pilgrimages of the Pilgrim Image of Fatima to Argentina and a tireless promotor of the Message of Fatima in his country.

The Shrine of Fatima remembers with emotion this great apostle of Fatima for whom we are praying today, believing that he was received in the maternal arms of the Mother, whom he helped so much to make known.

Shrine of Fatima has a new website

In the beginning of March, the Shrine of Fatima launched a new website, offering information on daily pastoral activities, permanently updated, and information of historical and theological relevance for a better understanding of the message of Fatima.

In the new page, there is a countdown timer that will lead us up to the 13th of May 2017, the year in which the Centennial of the Apparitions is truly celebrated.

This new online site – www.fatima.pt – allows one to better know each place of the Shrine of Fatima, as well as the history of the apparitions and the life of the Little Shepherds.

The experience of the Shrine, a cultural agenda, and the celebration of the Centennial of the Apparitions are also highlighted in this new online space.

The novelty of this website is the improvement of the layout, with a multimedia area where one can see pictures and videos, and have access to documentation.

The live transmission from the Chapel of the Apparitions continues to be one of the most important elements of this new address, which is expected to be visited by thousands of pilgrims daily, just like the previous one.

The site is available in the 7 official languages of the Shrine: Portuguese, Spanish, Italian, French, German, and Polish.

This new space on the Internet also allows one to shop online from the official shop of the Shrine of Fatima.
